SETTING THE CUISINE BAR

VEGAN & VEGETARIAN SPECIALISTS WIN AWARDS TWO YEARS IN A ROW!

What happens when two punk rockers with little to no formal culinary training enter a Hors d'oeuvres / dessert competition among local chefs? They win first prize! And here's another kicker – they won serving only vegan and vegetarian cuisine.

Kind Catering owned and operated by Stephen Askew & Michael Escott, took First Honor at The Eleventh Annual Taste of the Best fundraising event benefiting the Boys & Girls Club. This was the duo's second appearance at this event at which they won Best Presentation the previous year.

"We were stoked to even be noticed last year, but to come in again and beat out some of the best known chefs and restaurants in the area... It's a welcomed surprise!", said Escott when asked to recall the night's festivities.

Stephen and Michael are extremely passionate about what they do stating; "Well, first of all, we love food and if we can spread the word and educate others on the benefits of a vegetarian diet – that's an added bonus."

Some people can be incredibly skeptical when they are first presented with dishes that are strictly plant based. "We can see the hesitation in the event-goers' eyes when they learn that everything we are serving them is vegan or vegetarian, but then we'll see them come back for seconds and even thirds – it's quite gratifying."

Kind Catering is a full service caterer specializing in vegan and vegetarian cuisines. They offer a wide range of services for whatever your event might require. For more information you can visit their facebook page, email them at kindcatering1@gmail.com or call Michael at (917) 279 - 3181 to book your event.
