

Photo by Katrina Firmstone

Pat Viso (left) and Mike Palatella of special guest band The Victory at Adriano's in Johnson City on February 15th during Rock Your Scene's Battle of the Bands round 1 competition, partly sponsored by the Police Gazette. The Victory did not compete, but came all the way from New Jersey to provide extra entertainment for the contest which was won by Prelude The Ruin. See story on page 7.

University Nightlife App Kicks Off with a Bang

Founder Nathan Grotticelli (center) with partners Isaac Smith (left) and Justin Hill before the start of the app's launch party January 31st. University Nightlife had 1,300 downloads its first three weeks. The app, which won 3rd place at Startup Weekend Binghamton (with the Police Gazette's help), is a one-stop source to manage your Binghamton nights out. "We are really listening to students," said Nathan. "We've been getting feedback and changing the product every week to try and make it the best possible."

Photo courtesy of www.ranker.com

Anne Hathaway

Winner of the 2013 Academy Award for Best Supporting Actress.

Police Gazette friend Pat Johnson is shown with Gazette publisher Steve Westlake in May 2011 when Pat was proprietor of The Gentleman's Barber in Binghamton. Pat is now in Asheville, NC, where she and her partner just opened a private Guest Suite in their home to take advantage of Asheville's tourist trade. Compare this picture to the one on page 11 sent in by a Police Gazette fan.