

DR. CAPRIO'S SEX CLINIC

DR. CAPRIO

This month's question:
What causes a person to become a
"peeping Tom?"

The compulsion to peep for the purpose of seeing someone undress or engage in sexual relations is known to psychiatrists as "voyeurism," a term derived from the French word "to see." Our vernacular term for a voyeur is "peeping Tom."

Voyeurism is usually traced to sex experiences in childhood and early adolescence. "Peeping Toms" are seldom dangerous.

A young man whom I shall call Walter, father of a child and who had been arrested for peeping into ladies restrooms, was referred to me by the court. According to the charge, he bored holes into the walls of public lavatories to observe women using the facilities.

On previous occasions when he was caught, he pretended to be a carpenter or a plumber making repairs. However, this excuse did not satisfy one woman who caught him at his "peephole." Her screams brought a policeman and Walter was placed under arrest.

Oddly enough, this young man was a regular churchgoer, well educated and a good family man. He had never been in any previous difficulty with the law. His wife, who was devoted to him, was stunned when told her husband was a "peeping Tom."

The judge regarded this case sympathetically since there was no evidence of other criminal tendencies. Walter was placed on probation with the stipulation that he see a psychiatrist.

Walter's sex deviation began when he made it a habit during his early adolescence to look through the bathroom keyhole while his sister was taking a bath. This premature sex stimulation became a fixation with him and he grew up obsessed with the desire to spy on women in restrooms.

Walter appreciated the opportunity to receive psychiatric treatment. He read up on the subject of sexual aberrations, acquired a scientific understanding of their origins and development, and was finally able to give up what, he agreed, was a senseless sex urge.

NEW WORLD RECORDS

Fastest Marathon Carrying an 80-Pound Pack

Roscoe Nash, an ex-Royal Marine, carried an 80-pound pack while he ran the London Marathon. Nash ended up knocking an hour off the existing Guinness World Records title, finishing in 5 hours 58 minutes 58 seconds.

Youngest Golfer To Qualify for the U.S. Masters

Tianlang Guan of China became the youngest to qualify for the Masters tournament at the age of 14 years 12 days. He then went on to become the Youngest Golfer To Make the Cut at the U.S. Masters.

Fastest Production Car

"Following a thorough review conducted with a number of external experts, Guinness World Records is pleased to announce the confirmation of Bugatti's record of Fastest Production Car achieved by the Veyron 16.4 Super Sport." The car had set the record of 267.856 mph before questions arose about unacceptable modifications. After a review, Guinness decided the modification was not significant and reinstated the record.

Limerick of the Month

There was an old Scot named McTavish,
Who attempted a monkey to ravish.

The object of rape
Was the wrong sex of ape.
So's the monkey that ravished McTavish.

Police Gazette Horoscope for May

Capricorn (the goat) Dec 22-Jan 19
Listen for someone who uses the word "newton" in casual conversation. This person should be followed because they are hiding something valuable from you. Be discrete but forceful!

Aquarius (the water bearer) Jan 20-Feb 18
Your opinion should not be held back and anyone who interrupts is surely an agent of The Devil. Spend time with "M" and "L," but watch your bank account.

Pisces (the fish) Feb 19-Mar 20
Long-distance relations are not always lying parasites; be swift and crafty in any replies. Chinese food could be your ticket to new-found money.

Aries (the ram) Mar 21-Apr 19
Use caution and stay at least 30 feet distant from anyone named "Ted." Bling signals a new beginning. Be sharp!

Taurus (the bull) Apr 20-May 20
You can relate well to many kinds of people, so a new cellmate should pose very few problems for you this week. The stars are in YOUR house, so make the best of it!

Gemini (the twins) May 21-Jun 21
Always remember that time is relative, but relatives can get you extra time! Think twice before making any deals with a distant cousin or mentioning where your mother-in-law is buried.

Cancer (the crab) Jun 22-Jul 22
Stay in touch with allies and have plenty of gas in your car. May could surprise you!

Leo (the lion) Jul 23-Aug 22
Anyone you meet who is wearing a shirt with a football mascot on it is not to be trusted, so use caution! Two blind men signal a new occupation, so be alert.

Virgo (the virgin) Aug 23-Sep 22
Always have one hand free and make sure there are no witnesses when you are near the bus station. Hangnails and rummy don't mix. Trust 4 and 33 with all of your heart.

Libra (the scales) Sep 23-Oct 22
Always remember to choose the best driver and don't leave witnesses, and you should not have to repeat that extended vacation in the near future.

Scorpio (the scorpion) Oct 23-Nov 21
A sharpened file can be as useful as a store-bought shank. 2 and 88 should make you especially nervous.

Sagittarius (the archer) Nov 22-Dec 21
Keep your wits sharp and don't get distracted by promises of health or money this month, and all should work out fine. A man eating Jell-O has more money than you would imagine... and is likely unarmed. Do what you need to do.
