

Eager customers get their growlers filled at The North Brewery in Endicott. The craft brewer opened for business in February and has been doing gangbusters business ever since. See story and interview beginning on page 3.

The Police Gazette Welcomes YOU to the Big Splash The Police Gazette was a sponsor of the GrassRoots Big Splash Sustainability Fair that took place in Recreation Park in Binghamton May 25th and 26th. There was lots of music—headlined by Driftwood and Donna The Buffalo—food and beer, plus info on how to sustain the American way of life without taking a giant turd on the planet. Whoo hoo!

NEXT MONTH! Paul Juser Begins His Coverage of the Binghamton Mayor Race with Interview of Ed Hickey

The Mount Wilson Trail Race Police Gazette-Founded Race Goes Strong After 105 Years

This Year's Winners Pictured Below; See Page 10 for Stories

From left, Sally June Tracy, Mireya Vargas, and Emily Farr. Vargas won the women's division with a time of 1 hour 14 minutes 34 seconds, with Farr coming in second and Tracy third.

From left, Eli Rodriguez, Jon Clark, and Aaron Zambrano. Rodriguez won the overall race with a time of 1 hour 0 minutes 31 seconds, Clark came in second overall and first in the men's 30-39 YO division, while Zambrano finished third overall and first in the men's 15-19 YO division.