

The Adventures of Kim Dotcom

By Tremolo Van Boing

"Scheiße!"

Kim Dotcom has just discovered that the Moth Fakir closed the backdoor into his brain. Cracking into this "superior human brain" is going to take more sophisticated measures.

Not one to be discouraged, Kim has been assembling an international team of experts adept at hacking the internet and unlocking secrets.

His main partner, Julian Assange, works from his base inside the Ecuadorian embassy in London.

A task Kim is up to!

"Netter Versuch, du liebes bischen!"

The UK, being the 51st state, of course has the entire embassy wiretapped for the United States government. But Kim and Assange are way ahead of them. Around the corner from the embassy, at 6a Herbert Crescent—an unobtrusive Knightsbridge address—an unknown individual operates the communication system for Assange and their newest partner...

Edward Snowden!

THE TIME IS NOW!

Cherry Poppin' Daddies Drop New Album, Go On Tour

Official Police Gazette Band Releases Album This Month, Coming East in August

The Cherry Poppin' Daddies, the official band of the National Police Gazette, are releasing their highly anticipated new album White Teeth, Black Thoughts on July 16th. It's the band's first all-swing recording in years. The Daddies is an eclectic group that has taken stabs at a variety of different styles. But it was their swing hit "Zoot Suit Riot" that made them international superstars in the late 90s. So fans of the Daddies' swing sound will be in for a treat.

Daddies frontman Steve Perry, who grew up in Apalachin in the Greater Binghamton area, gave an exclusive interview to the Police Gazette last year in which he told us "the focus is on making the record an interesting one, not something too boilerplate." So the style may be old, but the energy will be new.

The band will be coming East on tour in August, with stops at the City Winery in NYC on the 15th; Sellersville Theatre in Sellersville, PA on the 16th; The Hamilton in Washington, DC on the 17th; and The Middle East Downstairs in Cambridge, MA on the 18th. Visit www.daddies.com for more info.

CHERRY POPPIN' DADDIES

white teeth
black thoughts