

Courtesy of Les Films Christal

Antoine Bertrand reenacts one of Louis Cyr's favorite feats of strength in the film of the famous strongman's life. Cyr would withstand the opposite pull of two, and more, horses.

CAN BEAT THE WORLD

LOUIS CYR, THE "POLICE GAZETTE" CHAMPION HEROIC MAN, WHOSE MARVELLOUS EXHIBITIONS OF HEROIC-LEAN POWER HAVE MADE HIM FAMOUS THE WORLD OVER.

Louis Cyr could lift enormous weight with a single finger.
National Police Gazette, April 25, 1891.

Courtesy of Les Films Christal

Gil Bellows as Richard K. Fox
The veteran Canadian and American actor brings to life the most famous of the Police Gazette's owner/publishers. Fox was a patron of sport extraordinaire, bringing to national attention such legends as Louis Cyr, Annie Oakley, and John L. Sullivan.

Richard K. Fox presents Louis Cyr to British sportsmen.
National Police Gazette, December 5, 1891.